

Self Love Beauty's

2021 Father & Daughter Event IMPACT REPORT

Tuesday, May 11, 2021

A positive and supportive relationship from a male mentor in a young woman's life is essential to building confidence.

Self Love Beauty's Father & Daughter program focuses on the Developmental Relationships Framework from the Search Institute to strengthen their relationship through teaching life skills that contribute to a young woman's social and emotional wellbeing and development.

Studies show when youth experience strong relationships with their parenting adults, they are

- 3.7 times more likely to have a positive view of themselves
- 2.3 times more likely to set and work toward achievable goals

Participants at this event built a STEM-based project and shared affirmations with one another. They left the event with their projects but more importantly, the confidence that their relationship had grown!

It was so nice to spend some one-on-one time together, learn from each other and have the chance to build each other up.

We got to have a lot of bonding time, and we don't normally get to..., so that was nice to spend time together! I'm looking forward to the next one.
